

Romans 13:1-14 | Week 15 | 5/11/2014

1. Look at the 4 critical gospel questions on the next page. Think through the questions out loud. How do they help you to see through a gospel lens?
2. Why is it important to think through the good news of what God has done before we think about what we must do? In other words, what has God already accomplished and what will your good-doing never accomplish?
3. When you read the 4 questions in reverse order (4 Questions to Identify your Idols on page 2), you can identify the motives and core beliefs of your actions. Think about these questions out loud. Do they help you? (An Example: I am living like it all rests upon me. I think I must be in control. God is not in control. God is either not powerful or he doesn't care about me. Conclusion: I must be my own God.)
4. What does it mean to "put on Jesus Christ?"
5. In what ways can we "put on Jesus Christ . . . and not satisfy the desires of the flesh?" (Romans 13:11-14)
6. How does putting on Christ speak to who God is, what he has done, and in light of that, who I am?
7. Pray.

4 Critical Gospel Questions:

1. Who is God?
2. What has he done?
3. In light of that, who am I?
4. How should I then live?

4 Questions to Identify your Idols:

1. How am I living?
2. In light of that, who do I think I am?
3. What do I think God is doing?
4. Who do I think God is?
