

Romans 8:1-17 | Week 9 | 3/30/2014

1. Give an example of when you have had a fear that was irrational and you knew it to be irrational, but you felt like it was true anyway?
2. Why is there sometimes a disconnect between what we feel to be true and what is actually true?
3. Why is there no condemnation for those united with Christ Jesus? (vv. 1-4)
4. What is the connection between what Jesus did for us and what we do by the Spirit as those united with Jesus? (vv. 1-6)
5. How is the "spirit of adoption" distinct from the "the spirit of slavery?" (vv. 14-16)
6. In what ways do we experience the work of the Spirit as described in this chapter?
7. How can we help one another to connect this experience with our assurance of our future resurrection?
8. How can relating to God as our father be unsettling? How does this truth provide comfort?
9. Pray.
