Opening Up:

- What is the worst parenting advice you have ever heard someone give?
- What is something in life you wish you would have learned earlier? What difference would it have made?

Reference: Deuteronomy 6:4-9

Discuss:

1. What stood out from the talk this weekend?
2. Matthew Henry said, “turn your families into little churches.” How would your mindset change if instead of going home at the end of the day, you were going to a church that you pastored?
3. Deuteronomy 6:4-5 talks about how God should be first in our life. What is something in your life that fights to be first?
4. Help the group with what helps you. What helps you to keep God first?
5. In Deuteronomy 6:20-21 Moses tells us that the motivation for obedience is the grace of God in the Exodus. How does God’s grace motivate your repentance and obedience to him?
6. Have you ever fallen into the performance trap? (my work + other’s opinions = my worth) How does the gospel rebuke this trap?
7. In verses 6-9 we see that gospel is to saturate our home, neighborhood, work and city (or civic) life. Which of those domains of life is the hardest for you to display your faith in? Why? Discuss ways the gospel can saturate every area of life.
8. We are supposed to talk about the gospel in everyday life (6:7) Martyn Lloyd Jones said, “Have you realized that most of your unhappiness in life is due to the fact that you are listening to yourself instead of talking to yourself?” One tool to saturate your life with the gospel is... Recognize, Rebuke, Replace. What lies need to be recognized in your life? How can you rebuke them? What Gospel truth opposes that lie?
9. One summary of the gospel is this: I can’t. He did. Because he did, I can. Has this helped you in your life? How might you apply it? (Philippians 4:13)
10. Pray
